Once I was a boo-gie sing-er
 I tried to un-der-stand this Now first it was-n't eas-y

Play - in' in a rock and roll band
 I thought that they were out of their minds Chang - in' rock-and - rol - in' minds

I nev - er had no prob-lems, yeah—How could I be so fool-ish (how could I
 And things were get-ting shak - y

Burn - in' down the one night
 To not see I was the one be-I thought I'd have to leave it be - stands And ev'-ry-thing a-round me, yeah—

 -hind So still I kept on fight - ing—
 -hind But now it's so much bet - ter—

Got to start to feel-in' so low Well, los-ing ev'-ry step of the way
 I'm funk-ing out in ev-er-y way

And I de - cid - ed quick-ly—
 I said I must go back there But I'll nev-er lose that feel-ing

yes I did To got to go back And you know I won't Of dis-co down and check out the show—check to see if things still the same—how I learned my less-on that day—

Yeah, they were danc-in' and sing-in' And mov-in' to the groov-in' And just when it hit me Some-bod-y turned a-round and shout-ed

Play that funk-y mus - ic, white boy

Play that funk-y mus - ic right

Play that funk-y mus - ic, white boy

Lay down that boo-gie and play that funk-y mus-ic till you
